What is the difference between this and regular Benediction?) SP. Sept. 49; The "Laudate Dominum" (Why does the Church insist on singing the Psalm "Laudate Dominum" after Benediction? Why can't some other hymn be used?) SP. Feb. 58

Isn't it Catholic teaching that there are two distinct sources of divine revelation, the Bible and tradition?) SP. Sept. 48; Fables in the Bible (Are there any examples in the Bible of the use of fables?) SP. June 50; The unjust steward (Please explain the meaning of the gospel for the Eighth Sunday after Pentecost. Why did our Lord commend the unjust steward when the latter acted unjustly? Why did Jesus advise His disciples to "make friends with the mammon of iniquity?") SP. Nov. 59

SP. May 53; Burton. Two facts about birth control. Woman to woman. Oct. 53; Kelly. The Catholic Church vs. planned parenthood. May 34-36, 70-72; What about birth control? (It has been suggested that Catholics ask themselves: "Is the Church's teaching about birth control clear to you?" And it has been openly stated that Catholic theologians don't know what they are talking about when they discuss marriage and morality. This sort of thing appeared not in the secular press but in recent editions of Catholic magazines. Statements like these confuse me. What's it all about?) SP. May 53-54

- COLLEGE STUDENTS. See Foreign Students
- COMMERCIALS. See Advertising
- COMMUNION, HOLY. First communion and Matrimony (Is there any reason why the following marriage could not be rectified? Two Catholics were married by an alderman in a civil ceremony, both were baptized, but only the woman has made her First Communion. The man was raised a Catholic but without ever having made his and has not to this day, but he is opposed to doing so. She has been informed that this is an impediment to the validation of the marriage.) SP. Feb. 54

(If a married couple practices birth control, is it better to stay away from confession entirely or to go to confession and continue to practice birth control?) SP. May 53; Confession and Matrimony (Is confession and/or Communion a requirement for receiving the sacrament of matrimony? This is in reference to two Catholics who were married by a minister in a civil ceremony. The woman wants to get married, and the man would probably go through the ceremony because it means nothing to him, but confession is out.) SP. Feb. 54-55; Frequent confession (Why do priests and religious go to confession so frequently?) SP. Jan. 51; A good confession (I go to confession regularly. But sometimes I have doubts as to whether I receive absolution for my sins. What should I do?) SP. Jan. 51; Murder and confession (If a penitent confessed a sin of murder for which an innocent man had been convicted and sentenced to death, would he have an obligation to admit his crime to save the innocent man? Could the priest remain silent and allow an innocent man to be put to death?) SP. Nov. 60; Trese. Peace be to you. Apr. 36; What sins to confess (I have found it very embarrassing to have to confess the same sin over and over again. I feel that because I am sincerely trying to overcome this sin, whenever I do commit it, there must be a lack of sufficient reflection on my part. So I don't confess it. Am I doing right?) SP. Dec. 53; What to confess (When one has little matter for confession, is it advisable to include grave sins of one's past life?) SP. May. 55

CONFESSOR. Power of the confessor (Please explain the power which the priest has over sin in the confessional?) SP. Nov. 60

CONFIRMATION. Confirmation and marriage (I intend to marry a man who says he has "grown away" from the Church. He now goes to Mass with me but has not yet been confirmed. Will that prevent us from having a nuptial Mass? Some of my friends say it will.) SP. Oct. 58

HELL. Eternal punishment? (There are two texts from Scripture, one from the Old Testament and one from the New, which seem to contradict the Catholic Church's teaching on life after death. It seems that according to Malachias (4:3) the wicked will be completely destroyed, for the prophet says they shall be ashes. And in his Epistle (verse 7), Saint Jude refers to eternal fire when writing of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah. Since the fire ceased, how can it be called eternal?) SP. June 48

MARRIAGE. Civil marriage? (Is it true that in some countries the Church allows a Catholic to marry a non-Catholic before a civil official?) SP. June 49; Confession and Matrimony (Is confession and/or Communion a requirement for receiving the sacrament of Matrimony? This is in reference to two Catholics who were married by a minister in a civil ceremony. The woman wants to get married, and the man would probably go through the ceremony because it means nothing to him, but confession is out.) SP. Feb. 54-55; Confirmation and marriage (I intend to marry a man who says he has "grown away" from the Church. He now goes to Mass with me but has not yet been confirmed. Will that prevent us from having a nuptial Mass? Some of my friends say it will.) SP. Oct. 58; First Communion and Matrimony (Is there any reason why the following marriage could not be rectified? Two Catholics were married by an alderman in a civil ceremony and both were baptized, but only the woman has made her First Communion. The man was raised a Catholic but without ever having made his and has not to this day, but he is opposed to doing so. She has been informed that this is an impediment to the validation of the marriage.) SP. Feb. 54; Haring and Calman. Of love and children. Jan. 9-13; Invalid marriage? (What effect does the intention of a woman, who is about to marry, not to have children (simply because she does not want them) have on the marriage contract?) SP. Oct. 58; The justice of interracial marriage. ed. Jan. 34; Love and marriage (I am a Protestant and cannot understand the teaching of the Catholic Church on marriage. Presumably, the Church teaches that if either party of a marriage excludes an essential property of marriage, the contract is invalid. Is not love an essential property of marriage? And if it is, how can a marriage be valid when one of the parties entered into it out of a sense of duty rather than love for the other?) SP. Sept. 49; The ministers of Matrimony (Who is the minister of the sacrament of matrimony? I have heard that the persons who are being married are the ordinary minister. Is this true? SP. Feb. 59; Nonsacramental marriage (If Christ raised marriage to the dignity of a sacrament, why is a priest allowed to officiate, with the proper dispensation, at a nonsacramental but valid marriage between a Catholic and an unbaptized person?) SP. Feb. 59; Rectifying a marriage (We were married before a justice of the peace. Since then, my husband has entered the Catholic Church and we have a baby baptized a Catholic. We want so much to have the marriage rectified but are afraid to make the approach.) SP. Oct. 58; Valid marriage? (A friend went through a civil marriage ceremony with a Catholic girl who had previously been married validly according to Church law. She had obtained a civil divorce. They are now separated. Could my friend obtain a civil divorce and marry again?) SP. May 53; See also, Banns; Divorce

MASS. Kung. The Mass of the future. Sept. 18-21; The Mass in English (Recently I attended a Byzantine Mass at the Passionist monastery in Jamaica, Long Island. It was celebrated all in English. I know I am not speaking merely for myself when I say it was beautiful and uplifting for the soul. We didn't need missals or books of any kind to know what was going on and to be one in heart with the priest celebrating. According to the clock, it was longer than our Latin Mass. But for the soul it was a foretaste of the eternal "present" in heaven. My question is: "Why is it that the Byzantines can have their Mass in the vernacular, while we of the Latin Rite must endure endless labor with the Missal, never catching up with the celebrant, or daydream through the silent prayers of the priest at the altar?"
